What They Say.

Mr. Montville Flowers is to present Dickens' Christmas carol here on the night of November fourth, and wide-awake people are not going to miss hearing him. He wears the title, "Master of Impersonators." Wherever he appears he is so recognized.

"You are a great reader," said Booker T. Washington. "I want you to come to my school."

"He surprised and captivated the audience. He is an unqualified success."

—The Sun, Baltimore.

"He is the finest combination of actor and orator ever seen here."—Times, Reading, Pa.

"No men on the American platform have ever demonstrated to a Nashville audience such a combination of literary insight, emotional power and dramatic ability."—The American.

The High School Chapel should be filled with culture-loving people when this great artist performs, as first number of the lecture course.

Religious.

The members of the A. O. U. W. lodge will meet Sunday night at their lodge room to attend the Baptist church, where they will be addressed by Rev. G. W. Argabrite. The members are requested to meet at the lodge room at 6:45 o'clock.

Rev. "Uncle" Joe Hopper will preach at the Second Presbyterian Church, in this city, on Saturday and Sunday morning, and will continue the meeting thereafter until further notice.

Rev. Baker P. Lee, dean of Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington, has received a call from a prominent Episcopal Church, in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Turney, formerly of this county, united with the Christian church, by letter, at Georgetown, Sunday.

Elder Henry Mavity, the oldest preacher in the Christian Church in Kentucky, is dead.

Sembrich in Cincinnati.

Madame Sembrich's appearance in song recital at Music Hall in Cincinnati, O., is occasioning much talk amongst the music lovers of that city. Its people appreciate this distinction of being one of the only for cities in America to hear the famous diva in recital this season and large as is the Music Hall, from present indications its capacity will be none too great for the performance of Oct. 26.

Already orders for blocks of seats are being received from music teachers who purpose attending with their pupils, the former confiding that an opportunity such as a recital by Madame Sembrich affords to students of music being one not to be neglected.

The seats open at D. H. Faldwin's piano store, 145 West Fourth St., at 9 o'clock Monday morning October 21. Parquette, $1.50; Dress Circle, $1.50 and $1.

Back Home Again.

Milt. G. Barlow, who was born and raised in Paris, Kentucky, and who is known all over the world as one of the best minstrel stars on the American stage, is now specially engaged with Mr. Al. W. Martin to play the part of Uncle Tom in Mr. Martin's $30,000 production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," direct from New York City. Mr. Barlow made his first appearance on any stage in Lexington, Kentucky, and even as a young boy made the hit of the evening in his first performance. He also went to school at Ashland. It is doubtful if, in earlier days, when "Uncle Tom's Cabin" occupied the enviable position of the most popular play of the day, and when it was the novelty of the dramatic stage, it ever received the attention so liberally bestowed upon it as in Mr. Martin's revival. It surely has never had the benefit of the scenic environment with which he has sumptuously provided it. The stage settings and pictures are note-worthy and are veritable triumphs of the scenic artist's skill, while the company is all that talent and careful direction can produce.

Al. W. Martin's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House on Monday night. The parade will start from the theatre at 10:30 a. m., making a tour of all the principal streets.

The two beautiful cars from the Jackson & Shark Car Works will be placed at the depot, and the public is cordially invited to inspect them.

Matrimonial.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lebus, of Cynthiana, have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Mr. Claude Stonam Holman, Oct. 16, at Los Angeles, Cal.

The marriage of Mr. John D. Penn, of Hutchison, this county, and Miss Mary Lane Taylor, of Winchester, was celebrated Wednesday afternoon. The bride wore a gown of gray broadcloth with hat to match and carried white roses. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Cincinnati. They returned yesterday and will reside at the groom's home, near Hutchison station, where they were entertained last evening at dinner.

Amusements.

On Monday night, next, Al. Martin's big "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company, will be seen at the Grand Opera House, in this city. Much importance is attached to the engagement from the fact that Milt. G. Barlow, an ex-Parisian, is with the company. Old-timers will remember Milt, when he clerked for Charley Klein, on the corner of Main and Broadway, in the clothing store that stood where the Agricultural Bank now stands. Barlow first acquired a taste for theatricals while a member of the old Bourbon Thespians, an organization composed of a number of the young men of this city. He left Paris and went on the road with the late Jack Haverly, and afterwards organized the Barlow, Wilson, Primrose & West's minstrels, which was very successful for many years. He is recognized as the best delineator of the Southern darkey now before the public. Many of his old friends will be on hand Monday night to give him a warm welcome back to his "Old Kentucky Home."

The above named Company, composed of business men of Paris, has recently been incorporated, and for the purpose of developing their oil and mineral leases, offer for sale a limited number of shares of stock.

The Company's holdings consist of leases on nearly 7,000 acres of land, nearly all of which are located in Barren and Allen Counties, Kentucky. Their lands have been carefully selected, some of which adjoin lands on which are Oil wells that have produced for years a very fine grade of oil. Their leases were secured before the present rush and excitement began in those Counties, and are choice lands, and valuable.

Lands, adjacent to Company's, secured recently by Eastern capitalists at large price, are now being developed as fast as machinery can be put on grounds.

Those desiring stock can obtain same by applying to Secretary or any officers of the Company.
